VOL. 13 NO. 4 WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1972. 10¢ BY CARRIER

Council to study Town's potential for light industry

Council will conduct an intensive review of all lands within town limits available for commercial and light industrial development. The study will embrace every aspect of furthering such development, including methods of financing municipal services, zoning policies, parking and transportation requirements and a close look at assessment rates presently in effect.

First meeting will be scheduled in the very near future, pending some information being prepared by staff by way of inventory, engineering statistics and related matters.

Noting that the town has already subdivided in some areas for light industrial and commercial development, such as the property west of Bellevue under C4 zoning, de Bruijn suggested that major developers, having land zoned for this purpose, should be interviewed as part of the investigative study.

Motion by de Bruijn to begin the study was unanimously supported by council under new business, following earlier discussion as the regular meeting of council which resulted in a motion not to advertise in the February issue of Alberta Business Journal. While Hudson didn't like "council's attitude" Lukay felt council was being "realistic," in not advertising until sufficient serviced sites were available to justify the expense. Kambouroff wanted council to make a firm decision on what type of use can be made of existing land serviced for commercial purposes, so that prospective buyers could be informed promptly.

St. Albert will present a resolution, for the meeting this fall of the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association, requesting changes in the provincial planning act which would allow a municipality to obtain more land for school use, under the requirements of public reserve dedication by developers when subdividing.

Under existing regulations public reserve of 10 per cent of the subdivision is the maximum that can be taken for school and park use.

Council has forwarded to the minister of culture, youth and recreation, a submission supporting three points which have been raised on library legislation:

a) The present upper limit of two mills that municipalities may allocate to libraries is too low and should be raised or eliminated. Also, the allocation of monies should be left to the discretion of the municipality.

b) The present lower limits are tied to the grant structure and are too low, outdated, and discriminatory; therefore, should be replaced by an equalized grant structure which removes population stipulations.

c) The grants for any one year are based on the population figures for the preceding year; thus figures obtained in January 1971 are applicable to the grants in 1972. This is a significantly lower figure for grants for a rapidly growing community.

Last call for singers!

"All ye who love music, come, join . . ." the St. Albert Singers, as they prepare part three of Handel's Messiah for the Easter season. Anyone wishing to participate should join the group by the first rehearsal, scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 3 at 8:45 p.m.

All members of the group will be especially interested in the upcoming Madrigal workshop, to be held in St. Albert in the near future, under the direction of Mr. John Pauls, conductor of the Edmonton Symphony Chorus.

Consumers to meet Monday

A meeting will be held on Monday, January 31 at 8 p.m. in the Clubhouse (beside the swimming pool) when interested consumers in St. Albert will learn how they can form an Action Group.

Mrs. D. Walters, president of the Edmonton Branch of the Consumers' Association of Canada and Mrs. A. O. Harmer, chairman of the Provincial Action committee, will both be there to speak and advise. This is a wonderful opportunity to find out about the association and its growing importance as a voice which is being listened to by governments, producers, trade and industry. It is also a source of information about all aspects of living in today's society - from baby food to banking.

Attend the meeting on January 31 - coffee will be served and there will doubtless be much talk! You will also learn how you can make your views known, how you can improve your standard of living and generally become a well-informed, happier consumer.

Interest in the Consumer's association has risen sharply in recent years as Canadians become increasingly aware of the complexity of goods and services being offered on all sides, and the need for continuing education in wise shopping practices.

Municipalities to get extra 4 Million

An increase of four million dollars in municipal assistance grants was announced last night by Premier Lougheed. The amount for the 1972 - 73 fiscal year, will be the largest ever provided by way of support to local government, said Mr. Lougheed. Municipal Affairs Minister, Dave Russell had urged an increase on behalf of the municipalities for more assistance to provide needed services.

Mr. Russell said he based his case for the increase in direct response to representations as to needs made to him during the last two weeks, by municipal associations and representatives all over the province, and the recommendations of the M.L.A. Task Force on provincial - municipal financing.

Talks concluded last Thursday in time for the minister to present his case to cabinet yesterday. As a result the government re-assessed its position and adjusted the original figure upward.

A motion by Ray Gibbon lowering the age for full membership in the Association from 19 to 18 was carried.

The Hon. Bill Yurko, Minister of the Environment, spoke of new directions the Bob Lema of Villeneuve was elected president of the St. Albert Progressive Conservative Association at their annual meeting Friday evening, replacing Rene Kambouroff of St. Albert, who did not seek re-election.

Derek Browne, nomination

chairman, presented a slate and took nominations from the floor resulting in the election of 24 directors who will in turn elect their own officers at a meeting to be held in the near future. Chairman Kambouroff asked that those interested in serving as voting delegates to the provincial convention being held Jan. 28th-30th so indicate. The association is allowed six voting delegates, two of which are to be women. From the eight who wished to serve six were selected by draw: Bob Prather, Charles Atkinson, Derek Browne, Bernie Rempel, Marg Davis and Eileasa Gibbon.

Town population 12,637 An increase of 12.3 percent

St. Albert's population grew almost twice as much in 1971 as it did in 1970, and the figure now is 12,637, an increase of 1,388 since January 1971. In 1970 the town grew by 719 people. Percentage wise the increase in 1971 was 12.3 and in 1970, 6.8 per cent.

It would also appear that there are more jobs available in St. Albert than a year ago. A total of 981 people live and work in St. Albert, whereas in January last year the figure was 736 residents employed in town.

Population breakdown is as follows over three years: (note that for 1970 and 1969 the middle figure was ages 6 - 19, and for 1971 it is 6 - 18, in order that number of residents of voting age may be determined).

	1971	1970	1969
Pre-school population	1,424	1,590	1,621
Ages 6 - 18	4,563	4,078	3,751
Adults	6,650	5,581	5,158
TOTAL	12,637	11,249	10,530

The town has 357 residents over the age of 65, 164 of whom reside at Youville Home. This compares with 339 people over 65 last year.

For people interested in school planning, the census just completed also shows how the pre-school population stands: there are 204 babies under one year; 223 one-year olds; 282 age two, 275 age three, 289 age four, 288 age five and 67 children six years old and not in school yet.

Veteran curler Jim Flynn of St. Albert gave the younger fellows a run for their money this week, defeating the Walker rink, Pee Wee Quintal, Norm Maunier and Ted Barker before bowing out to the Lauder foursome who went on to win the first event. He won over Ted Barker's team to take third place in No. 1 event. Jim learned his curling on the old two-sheet rink located behind the present Perron store, and has never missed a season in 28 years since. He has taken in bonspiels all over the district, including many ACA spiels, and for five years running, represented Zone 5 in the senior curling playdowns. This year he gets in at least three games a week, curling in the mixed and farmer's leagues at Lancaster Park, and the Wednesday mixed league in St. Albert.

Mrs. Helen McAra, in fine trim and looking amazingly vigorous and alert, enjoyed her 106th birthday party immensely at the Youville Home last Sunday. Photographed with her are great grandchildren Todd and Brenda Fitzsimonds, aged seven and six years respectively.

RURAL RECREATION

By Carl Royan
RIVIERE QUI BARRE:

A "Family night" program is in the process of getting started in Riviere Qui Barre. Held each Saturday evening in Camilla School, the idea is to provide a variety of activities so that entire families can get together with something of interest to all. Athletic activities include volleyball, badminton, basketball and floor hockey. In addition there are various forms of arts and crafts such as macrame and soft leather work and still others enjoy various card games. The organizers say they are very flexible, and can find some activity for every person who attends. This plan for families getting together to have fun should work out well and anyone wishing further information, or having some ideas as to program is invited to contact Mrs. Lollie Brennels at 256-2060, LAMOURÉUX.

Interest has been expressed in forming a snowmobile club in the Lamoureux district and a meeting to discuss this possibility is being planned for the near future. For information call Jack Randon at 543-4336.

For people interested in getting a crafts program going in this area, the person to call is Mrs. Jack Randon, who would welcome ideas.

LEADERSHIP COURSES:

For women who attended the leadership course at Camp Ho Ho last fall, there are several follow-up courses being held in the near future. In addition there should be a local session held soon for leadership people, and the booklets that various people have enquired about will be available at that time.

Some of the courses that are being offered in other districts include: In Westlock - an in-service course on leadership skills on Feb. 5 and 6. In the County of Parkland -- dressmaking, Feb. 3. Macame - Feb. 5; leather - Feb. 5; physical culture - Feb. 5. For more information on any of these contact me at 429-6276 or 256-3321.

Chiefs trounce Barrhead

Surprise, surprise! St. Albert's representative bantam team, the Fire Chiefs, trounced Barrhead 7 - 4 Sunday, thereby cooling out the Edmonton Rural Hockey League's hottest team while breaking a 10-game losing streak.

The win was the second in 18 games for the Fire Chiefs and it was as well-earned as it was decisive, with the Chiefs coming from behind a 4 - 2 deficit at the end of the first period and scoring five unanswered goals.

Barrhead had won four in a row before this game, knocking off league-leading Westlock twice and second-place Fort Saskatchewan twice.

In the first period, Barrhead went ahead with its first shot on goal, but the Chiefs tied it when Lloyd Olson picked up Chris Krupa's rebound and fired it into the net off the Barrhead goalie from behind the net.

Barrhead went ahead 2-1 with its second shot on goal and it looked as though goalie Roger Belley was having trouble. Rod Gouchey tied it with a blistering shot into the corner of the net after Olson lugged the puck almost the length of the ice and gave the left winger a perfect pass.

However, Barrhead came back with two more and St. Albert appeared on its way to loss number 17 and its 11th straight.

The Chiefs, though, had different ideas and put it all together in the second, scoring three times to take a 5 - 4 lead by the end of period.

Playing a man short, St. Albert fired the puck down the ice. Greg Thibert out-skated a Barrhead defenceman and gained possession behind the opponent's goal. He flipped the puck across the goal and Jack Bendera, returning to the ice from the penalty box, raced in and tipped the puck into the goal as he went sprawling over a defenceman.

Over 100 relatives and friends called on Mrs. Helen McAra at the Youville Home on Sunday, to offer congratulations and best wishes on the occasion of her 106th birthday.

The families of two sons and two daughters in the Edmonton area arranged the birthday party in the auditorium of the Home, where attractive tea tables were set up and extra seating provided. A beautifully decorated cake with Mrs. McAra's name and age inscribed on top was a centre of attraction.

A daughter who lives in Florida and a son in Victoria, and their families, were the only members of her family unable to attend. Mrs. McAra has three sons, three daughters, 18 grandchildren, 43 great grandchildren and eight great, great grandchildren, and five generations were present at the party.

At 106 years, Mrs. McAra is exceptionally alert mentally, and while both her sight and hearing are nearly gone, she is not bedridden and moves around the Home for short walks and visits each day. If asked to what she attributes her long life, her answer is always the same - "It is God's will."

The sisters, including some visiting from Montreal, came in a group and sang "Happy Birthday" to their oldest resident. Mrs. McAra has been at the Home for five years. Visitors also included some long-time friends and former neighbors of the McAras in the Morinville district.

When Mrs. McAra was born, on January 25, 1866, the only girl in a family of six, and arriving on Bobbie Burn's birthday on top of that, there was great rejoicing at their home in Castle Douglas in the southern part of Scotland.

At the age of 20 she came to the United States with two of her brothers, and shortly afterwards accompanied them to Central America on a mining expedition. Two years later she returned to Philadelphia and it was here that she met Peter McAra, a friend of her brothers. After a short trip back to Scotland she returned to the States, where she was met by Peter in New York and they were married. The first four of their 10 children were born in the States, before the family returned to Scotland, and it was here the remainder of their children were born. Three children died in infancy and one boy passed away eight years ago.

In 1910 Mr. McAra came to Alberta and worked at a variety of carpentry jobs, while building a home at a farm property he purchased in the Mannville district. The family joined him in 1911 and three years later Mr. McAra died.

Mrs. McAra and the family moved to Edmonton in 1917, leaving two boys on the farm. Two others were away in the war and soon the farm was sold and the other two sons also went into the army.

In later years, after the family were all married, Mrs. McAra made her home for a time with her daughter Mrs. C. H. Smith in Edmonton, before coming to Youville Home.

Marie Rammelaere passes

Mrs. Marie Rammelaere passed away at the Youville Home on Dec. 31 at the age of 92. Survived by a daughter Mrs. Ed (Louise) Boyle, St. Albert; grand-daughter Mrs. Dave (Sharon) Liebel, Edmonton and four great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husband Adolf in 1962.

Funeral services were held in St. Albert Catholic church, January 5. Father Lavangie and Father Joly officiated at the mass. Interment in the family plot, St. Albert.

CNR holds session at star of the North

A group of CN supervisors from across the country held a five day-study session at the Star of the North here in St. Albert. The instructor Mr. Tom Urquhart came from Montreal to lead the discussions and to bring the new policies to the field supervisors. Mr. D. A. Logan from the CN Edmonton office was the man responsible for the session which began on Sunday the 16th to wind up on Friday the 21st.

The CN authorities were fully satisfied with the facilities provided by the "Star of the North" for such a session. It was said during the week that two main factors had contributed to the success of the study period:

*The tremendously quiet and study-conducive atmosphere found in the Star of the North,

*The excellent food services provided by the kitchen staff of the Retreat House.

Mr. D. A. Logan reported that the CN session had been well prepared and that the participation of all the supervisors were excellent during the whole five-day period. Clubs, associations and business firms may make arrangements for seminars, study sessions and such activities at this fine facility in St. Albert, by contacting Father Gaston Montigny, director of the Centre.

government is taking in five priority areas, emphasizing first measures to develop a job intensive base within the major resource industries of Agriculture, Energy and Timber. Establishing secondary industry is essential to create jobs and maintain an expanding job market in the future, he said. There will be 40 to 50 surface plants alone in the tar sands area, said Mr. Yurko, but not overnight.

He referred also to steps taken to provide for the elderly and underprivileged and handicapped, a first concern of his government.

"Provincial rights have been eroded for some time," said the minister, and we intend to exercise Alberta's full constitutional rights. The government wants to de-escalate the escalating trend to "Bigness" in the cities, governments and institutions," declared Mr. Yurko, and is programming to dissipate growth throughout the whole province.

He spoke of his "Polluter pays" policy in controlling pollution and said there will be no direct pollution grants from his government. However they recognize that some municipalities, who are experiencing rapid growth such as St. Albert will need assistance in such matters as sewage disposal, and described a formula being worked out to provide this help.

Water management will be on a river-basin area plan, with priority to most serious problems first. The situation is not what it was claimed to be and the money is not available for everything the government would like to do. The task will be long, but it is also exciting, said Mr. Yurko in conclusion.

The balance of the evening was given over to dancing and people from all parts of the constituency obviously enjoyed getting together again for a fun evening.

Trophy Sheep and Moose

The Honourable Dr. Allan A. Warrack, minister of lands and forests, has announced several changes which will affect non-resident hunting of trophy sheep and moose in Alberta.

The changes are designed to better and more fairly distribute these big game resources to Albertans and Canadians and recognizes the need for restrictions on the non-resident harvest of these valuable species.

Trophy sheep for non-residents and non-resident non-Canadians will be available on a limited draw basis only in 1972. Permits will be issued before May 1, 1972. The successful non-resident applicant for a trophy sheep licence will also have to provide proof that he has engaged a registered guide before his licence is issued and no non-resident sheep hunting will be allowed south of the Bow River.

Changes in the licence fee for the special non-resident moose licence are being considered. There will be no changes with regard to the guiding industry in 1972. Guides and outfitters will be allowed to operate in the same manner as in previous years.

Committee protests annexation of 500 acres - BACM

The St. Albert Community Planning Committee was organized on a formal basis less than two weeks ago, when the group, which had been holding informal discussions, decided they must act very quickly indeed to protest the proposed annexation of some 500 acres to St. Albert, which could house a population of close to 40,000.

The Local Authorities Board had advertised the application for annexation, giving January 20 as the deadline for making such representation. The committee was successful in getting the following submission into the board before the deadline. It was also made available to the press and town council.

It is expected that a public hearing will be scheduled by the LAEB before a decision is made on the matter.

Mr. Barry Broadbent, provisional president, has stated that anyone interested in supporting the committee, or who would like to take part in future meetings may get in touch with the provisional secretary, Mrs. Barbara Wheatley at 586-5864.

By St. Albert Community Planning Committee in the matter of The Application by the Town of St. Albert for annexation of certain adjacent territory.

Members of this committee feel the proposed annexation may vary or affect the rights of the present residents of the Town of St. Albert in a number of ways.

First of all because the territory in question is BACM property we presume the purpose of annexation can only be for the ultimate development of this property. There is presently much undeveloped property within the town limits. The proposed annexation would add approximately 500 acres which if developed could add about one third to the present town size. If these properties are to be serviced for development the town is faced with the need for greatly expanded service facilities.

In our opinion the town has not sufficiently informed its residents of any plans or agreements it has made to cope with the need for these new service facilities. Not enough information has been given the townspeople for them to make a reasoned judgement as to how this development will affect them. Specifically we feel the town should be able to show such planning and supporting evidence in the following areas: -

A) Physical and financial matters which are of direct concern to the town.

a) Sewage treatment and disposal to meet provincial government pollution standards for the present town and for an expanded town.

b) Water supply for an expanded town.

c) Garbage disposal for the present and/or expanded town.

d) Roadways and bridges to service an increased population north of the Sturgeon River.

e) Public transportation for an enlarged town.

f) Provision of land for parks, recreation facilities and schools above the 20 per cent of acreage provided by developers.

We say of the opinion the town has not done sufficient planning to have reasonable answers of these problems. Not only are they introducing new servicing problems through this possible development, but the cost of servicing will be higher than normal because the location of the territory proposed for annexation is north of the river.

g) The following points are of direct concern to persons outside St. Albert.

Physical and financial considerations which are of direct concern to other governments.

a) Provincial responsibility for control and development of highway 2 from Edmonton through the townsite.

b) City of Edmonton responsibility for arterial roads used by St. Albert residents.

Can the town show that these authorities have been informed of the possible growth of St. Albert so they may consider the resulting problems of increased population?

The following questions are of a general nature which the committee would like to have answered.

a) Why is the town making this application for annexation? We feel the application by the town is in name only. In substance this application is by the developer BACM only for purposes of development of their property.

b) If annexation is approved, and development proceeds, does the town have any agreement with BACM to develop its properties at a certain rate so services necessary for the development are properly financed? Otherwise the town may develop services for a large population which may never materialize to help pay for the facilities.

Due to the lack of information on planning which the town has given to its residents, we urge the board to defer a decision on the application for annexation of territory. The Town of St. Albert has a history of financial problems brought on by development agreements contracted in the late 1950's.

Around Town

Over 100 girl guide leaders have pre-registered for the training session being held in St. Albert this weekend at the Retreat House and Parish Hall. They will come from throughout northern Alberta and as far away as Calgary for instruction covering all phases of guide work by highly qualified trainers from the provincial association. St. Albert Rangers have invited Rangers from the Tamarac district for separate sessions to discuss changes recently effected in the ranger's program. These girls will be billeted into Parish Hall, while the guides will be accommodated at the Retreat House. The program begins Friday evening and will conclude Sunday noon.

The Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club will have their regular dinner meeting and fun night out next Wednesday, Feb. 2 at the Purple Dade, from 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Irene Bourgeois of Balmoral Drive got back home Tuesday after undergoing two major operations. She got home on Jan. 11, after the first operation Jan. 3. The very next day she was rushed back to the General hospital and it was found more surgery was needed and subsequently performed on Jan. 17. She is improving nicely after her unexpected double dose of surgery.

Dr. Peter Smerdon returned Monday from a chiro-

The unforeseen financial costs created by this unplanned development led to the town being placed under the control of the Local Authorities Board for a period of time. We feel this could happen again if growth is not carefully planned and controlled.

We urge the board to call a public hearing so all concerned can have answers to the questions posed, before further annexation and development is allowed to proceed.

Conference productive reports PSS Director

By Mona Acker

Dr. Ken Paproski, M.L.A., Edmonton, Kingsway, was the featured speaker at the opening luncheon of the annual conference of Preventive Social Services Committees and Boards in north-eastern Alberta. Other guest speakers included Dr. Paul Yewchuck, M.P., Mr. John Smith and Mrs. Thelma Scambler both of the social planning branch of the Department of Health and Social Development, and the mayor of Lac La Biche, who welcomed the delegates.

Dr. Paproski spoke enthusiastically of a proposal he intends to submit to the Alberta legislature that will turn back to the citizens control of health and social services in the province. Under this plan, all services dealing with the well-being of people, mental, physical, and social, will be housed under one roof in regional centres serving a population of 10,000 to 30,000. The services would be available to all people regardless of geographical location or economic circumstances, and Dr. Paproski suggests such centres could be called community health and social development centres. They would be designed to minimize bureaucracy and meet the needs of individuals and families in an optimum way. The main objectives of the proposal are to raise the total health care standards and provide the best services at minimum cost.

Dr. Yewchuck, in his address, echoed the spirit of the preventive social services program when he said that the people served by the program, the grass roots, are the most important factor. They should have a say in how it is run. He said that one's attitude should not be, "what does your MP do for you, but what do you do for your community?"

All who attended the two day meeting of presentations and small group discussions, came away with the feeling that the opportunity for interchange with other areas with PSS programs was most productive. Those areas participating in the conference were St. Albert, Lac La Biche, Ft. McMurray, Athabasca, Barrhead, and the County of Thorhild. PSS directors, including Mrs. Mona Acker of St. Albert, were included as resource personnel.

Fire Chiefs

goal of the game when he whipped in Thibert's rebound after Tom Parayko and Gouchey had fought for the puck behind the net.

Then John Wells got the winner for the Chiefs with Sandy Milroy and Thibert again earning assists.

Chris Krupa, a standout from the blueline which hopped over the goalie's glove. Chris Hoffart got the assist. It was Hoffart's turn as he fired a blazing slapshot from the blueline high into the net. Wells earned the assist.

There were eight penalties in the game, three to St. Albert.

Thursday, the Fire Chiefs lost 4 - 2 to Fort Saskatchewan in a game they could have won with a little hard work -- the kind of work that produced Sunday's victory.

Lorie Loshak started the club off right when he opened the scoring in the first period. Wells took the puck off a defenceman, passed it to Sandy Milroy who slipped it to Loshak. Lorie made no mistake, flipping it high into the net.

The Fort tied it up just before the period ended, thanks to some sloppy St.

Albert defensive work. The Fort went ahead 2 - 1 in the second, but Gouchey tied it up with his first goal of the year, banking the puck in off a defenceman with Ledy and Hoffart getting assists.

The next game is Thursday night in St. Albert arena at 8 p.m. with West-lok visiting.

Knettes

For the third consecutive year the Knette club of St. Albert is looking after the Heart Fund drive in St. Albert, and they require the help of some 175 or more canvassers.

Each of the 26 Knettes acts as an area captain and is responsible for covering that area. What is required of a canvasser is about one and one-half hours of her time, to make calls during the blitz period from Feb. 14 - 29.

On February 9 the Knettes will hold a coffee party for all canvassers at the Clubhouse, when information is supplied, questions answered and canvassing kits from the Heart Fund are distributed.

Any women who would be willing to help are asked to get in touch with Sharon McMaster (599-6244) or Linda Stewart (599-5122). St. Albert residents are noted for their friendly response to projects of this nature, and volunteers will find it a rewarding experience for a most worthwhile objective.

The first period saw no scoring but four penalties in which three were against St. Albert.

In the second period at 2:01 Joe "Silver Fox" Cassidy banged the winner home on a pass from Fred Hesse. Jim Reid had two breakaways, both times pulled the goalie out of position and completely baffled him only to let two weak shots off, hitting goalie D. Kerpelinski for an easy save.

The third period saw the Comets pick up three more penalties, chances were many for each side, but no one could capitalize on them. The total penalties were nine to St. Albert and four to the Tomahawks.

JIM REID

The minor hockey players, which took in the game, thoroughly enjoyed the close action.

Plan new home grounds for beauty-use-budget

This is the first in a series of articles by Mr. Ted Makins of Artistic Landscapes Ltd. He began his training in Leeds, England and is a graduate of the University of Ontario in Guelph.

CHAPTER ONE

To some people, landscaping is digging a dozen Jackpines (from the bush areas), putting them into the trunk of the family car, and planting them in a row along the front of the house, and hoping they will grow - and that's Landscaping!

Another group of people deface their lawn with two pink plastic flamingoes, one stuck firmly in the ground dead centre in front of the living room window, and the other absolutely parallel to it in front of the bedroom

LEGAL

Get well wishes are extended to Paul Champagne and Philippe Mercier who are patients at the Sturgeon General Hospital. Mrs. Lucia Montpetit, Daryl and Charmaine Champagne, Valerie St. Martin, and Maurice Chamberland are back recovering after spending sometime in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Henri Caouette from Kelowna were visitors at the home of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cyr.

windows - and that's Landscaping!

Another group deface their lawn with little grinning plastic gnomes, dwarfs, and other monstrosities, painted in wild, wonderful and weird colors, and call it Landscaping!

To these people I can only say, "Spend a little time to learn about Landscaping your home - after all, you are going to live there, so why not take the plunge, at no cost to yourself, and try to landscape it as an art form; with live, care, determination, and eventually it will more than reward your efforts. The cost of your $20,000 home will be about $60,000 to you over the period of the mortgage, plus about $7 to $10,000 in various improvements inside and around it. The cost of a modest landscaping job, done by yourself, will be about one per cent of what your house is going to cost you, or $1,000 spread over three or four years, as and when you can afford it.

In this series of Landscaping articles I will try to help you organise the outdoor space of your property (be it in the city or country), to create beauty and utility, using natural as well as structural materials. You will learn the art of fitting your house into a setting which will make an attractive picture, and provide you and your children with maximum enjoyment, through extra living space, room for the fascinating hobby of gardening, or whatever may suit your needs.

"How is all this done?" you may be thinking, "I don't know a runner bean from a Blue Spruce." Well! let me answer this question for you as best I can. To start the project, take a clean sheet of paper, and using a scale of one inch equals 10 feet, draw the outline of your lot. Then draw your house on it, using the same scale, and you should have what is called a "plot plan."

This drawing now shows you the areas which you are going to landscape, and no doubt you already have some idea of where you want to put a patio, or the kiddies sand box. Sit back for a few days, enjoy thinking about it all, get a book out of the library on landscaping (don't rush out and buy one yet), and I will, in the next chapter, show you how to plan the work.

NOTE: The author will answer any correspondence if mailed to: -- Ted Makin, Artistic Landscapes Ltd., 9443 - 68A Street, Edmonton, Alberta.

Marcel Lambert, Federal MP of Edmonton West met with the social studies class at Sturgeon Heights school on Jan. 6. He described the House of Commons, the House of the speakers, the galleries for the public, the proper dress, and the work of the Sergeant-at-Arms. Mr. Lambert also told of security measures and of the purpose of his trip to Europe to view measures of security as practised in other countries. The pupils showed great interest. Mel Wakefield visited the science class and gave a talk on rods and reels, lures, and ice fishing. He displayed equipment used and explained what is meant by being a good fisherman. As a member of a fish and game association one can become acquainted with their programs which can provide pleasure with relaxation.

CALAHOO NEWS

By Liz McLeod

There certainly has been changeable weather this past while. The day was cold but calm last week when Ruth and Bob Hoyer invited Pete and Liz McLeod in for supper and a visit with Mother Russell who, incidentally, is home from hospital doing quite well and back at her work again. Meanwhile, unknown to the visitors, ably-zard was raging. It would have been better had they stayed, but the two couples left for home. In the city one could still see but on the highway it was almost a blind, but they got as far as Volmer store. The occupants, most wonderful folks, Mrs. John Scott, Debbie and Jackie coaxed us to stay the night.

How nice it was to drive in sunlight next morning and even have the roads snow-plowed. Mr. Scott was in hospital so it is hoped he is well again. Their kindness will ever be remembered.

Calahoo and district mourns the loss of another pioneer in the person of Mr. Henry Norris who was ill for sometime in Blunt's Nursing Home in Mayerthorpe.

His wife Annie who was a hard working charter member of Calahoo WI until she moved to Devon, the scrapbook Annie was in charge of won first prize at the convention years ago.

Sickness and misfortune has plagued the Green Willow district this winter. Lloyd Bergstreser's thumb is healing now after spending sometime in Sturgeon General hospital. He pulled it out of its socket in a bout with the PTO on Dec.

WI Officers plan year

By Liz McLeod

The Calahoo WI executive meet at Mrs. K. Dalheim's home to plan the program for the coming year.

The directors, Mrs. F. Brown, Mrs. J. Garty and Mrs. G. Schermund together with president Mrs. K. Dalheim, vice president Mrs. V. Albrecht; secretary Mrs. P. McLeod and Mrs. F. Lischewski spent the evening planning so as Mrs. J. Petrie, who offered to type the books, could get them done.

An impromptu meeting was called the next night to discuss a catering job. Several husbands accompanied the women due to the weather.

31st. Neighbors rallied so Anita had the much needed help in Lloyd's absence.

Tom Kattleson recovered and got home to Gordon Schermund's as did Gordon himself. Dennis Ulmers services were no longer needed once Tom was stronger and able to help.

Harold and Rudy Christen had a harrowing experience when a new feedlot disease developed and after six animals were lost the vet advised getting rid of the herd.

Mrs. Carl Bergstreser is convalescing at home after spending sometime in the Miscalcordia hospital.

Marcel Kerckhof has not been well lately.

Mrs. Helen Rajdo is also on the sick list at Calahoo.

Young Jeffery Zacharias is sick with the flu, his sister Sharon has had it and many more folks either are or have been sick.

Calahoo sports group

By Liz McLeod

Calahoo sports group have been very active recently. Over the festive season the Gazebo was used for social functions and a New Year's Eve frolic was well attended.

There was an ice carnival in which the pee-wee hockey teams had an opportunity to play hockey but due to the senior team having a game that same day, the attendance was poor.

The Juniors have had quite a few practice sessions and have played against Riviere Qui Barre and Villeneuve.

The Calahoo Scorpions are to be congratulated on their good performance in league games.

Postal pioneers of St. John's, Nfld, fought a hard battle with ship captains calling in at the port. These captains often accepted mail for transport on their ships at very competitive rates.

Vaccine dropped

In line with amendments to smallpox vaccination policy in the Province of Alberta announced recently by the Minister of Health and Social Development, Sturgeon Health Unit has discontinued routine smallpox vaccination.

Formerly children were vaccinated at one year, at school entry and in grades six and nine, and vaccination every five years was recommended for adults.

Vaccination will still be a necessary requirement for health workers and for travellers to certain countries abroad, and will also continue to be available for those persons who specifically request it.

Medical Officer of Health, Dr. James Howell, says the Unit entirely supports the provincial change of policy which follows very careful assessment by groups of experts and parallels changes in other provinces, the U.S. and U.K. Smallpox is occurring in very few countries (14 in 1971 compared with 39 in 1967) of which only one, Brazil, is in the Americas. Eradication programs sponsored by the World Health Organization have had a dramatic effect and the situation has been reached in Canada where the occasional side-effects of routine vaccination no longer outweigh the now infinitesimal risk of a case being imported undetected.

Robert Craig accompanied by Ben Kowalski motored to Tijuana, New Mexico, and came home in time to take over the shop while dad and mom flew to Hawaii for their holiday.

Prior to their holiday trips, Albert and Bob Craig of Craig's Manufacturing Co. Ltd. took in the agricultural and farm equipment displays at Regina and Saskatoon. Both report a great interest shown in the farm loader and other farm equipment designed and manufactured in Morinville by both Canadian and American visitors to the winter fairs held in Saskatchewan.

The Morinville Heritage Lake Investment Club held their annual meeting last week followed by a social evening. Beginning with a supper with 25 present. Kryskow. Elected for 1972 as president, Ernie Bokenfohr, vice president, Jim Rousseau; secretary, Guy Meunier; treasurer, Raymond Gibeault. Mary Hittinger, thanked the club members for inviting guests to their annual supper meeting and social.

Mrs. Rachelle Gibeault, is reported out of hospital and progressing very favourably since her recent operation.

Dave Kryskow, fiery rookie defenceman with the Chicago Black Hawks, in the NHL, is getting good reviews from the news media in the States. A few clippings received last week praised his style and form of play.

There is a very unhappy girl in Morinville since shortly after Christmas day The brand new toboggan, given to Lois Steffes from her godparents was taken from her home, and has not been returned since. Surely any parents seeing a new six foot toboggan not belonging to their own children should have it returned to the Clarence Steffes home immediately.

Alcomdale Club News

by Elizabeth Stilson.

December was a busy month for the members of Alcomdale 4-H Sewing Club, beginning with their sixth regular meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. H. Mensink, Dec. 8th. Mary Mensink led the pledge and roll call was taken. It was arranged that everyone planning to attend the Villeneuve Christmas party would meet at Mrs. L. Whitson's home Dec. 11th. Members were asked to bring gifts to the next work meeting for "Santa's Anonymous", and Frances Busenius and Shirley Dehnke volunteered to make impromptu for the January work meeting. Impromptus followed with everyone doing quite well and a delicious lunch concluded the meeting.

Some very useful tips on sewing stretch materials were given by Mrs. Whitson at the Dec. 18th work meeting held at the home of Mrs. H. Busenius. Frances Busenius gathered the Santa's Anonymous gifts for delivery to the depot. Arrangements were also made for a snowmobile party, held December 30th at the Whitson place.

Influence of rape residue on crop production

Re-issued from the District Agriculturist's office. Cereal and oil seed crops that are grown on land following rape, may be damaged by toxin that is readily leached from the rape residue. The most obvious effect of the toxin is a stunting of growth. Affected plants lack vigour, are short and are low yielding. Maturity is usually delayed and the stand is slightly reduced. The least obvious and possibly the only beneficial effect of toxic quantities of rape residue is a partial control of common root rot in the cereal crop that follows.

Damage is largely confined to the area beneath the windrow that is left by the combine. Rape residue that is spread uniformly at harvest time usually is not toxic to the following crop. A second cereal crop on rape stubble does not appear to be adversely affected even though the toxin is fairly stable in soil.

Although seedling growth of all crops tested was stunted by an extract from rape residue, seedlings of some crops were more tolerant than others. Varieties within each cereal crop also vary in their susceptibility to the rape toxin. (See list below).

Results from experiments in progress should indicate the best methods of managing rape residue using farm equipment, the chemical nature of the toxin, and lines of brassica with a low toxin content. Losses in crops following rape can generally be avoided by using a good straw spreader on the combine and by growing crops that are fairly tolerant to the toxin.

Fairly Resistant Crops - (listed in decreasing order of resistance): Fall Rye - Petkus, Sangaste, Cougar, Frontier; Malting Barley - Olla, Gateway, Paragon, Bonanza, Conquest; Feed Barley - Palliser, Galt, Jubilee; Oats - Pendek, Glen, Harmon, Rodney; Winter Wheat - Sundance, Yogo, Kharkov 22M.C.; Triticale - Rosner; Spring Wheat - Saunders, Neepawa; Spring Rye - Prolific.

Very Susceptible Crops: Rape, Mustard, Flax; Wheat - Durum, Soft White, Feed; Barley - Herta, Ferus; Oats - Eagle, Sioux; Springwheat - Thatcher, Cypress, Park, Chinook, Man-

Price of sugar going up

Sugar is sold on a protected market, e.g., the price of sugar in Edmonton is the same as the price of sugar in Vancouver. The price varies here as the price varies on the world market.

During the 1971-72 crop year there was a deficit, therefore, we have been digging into world reserves, combined with this the Soviet Union has been buying as much as 100,000 tons of sugar. Source - Dr. J. Horlicks, supervisor, plant pathology, Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Re-issued from the D. A.'s Office.

A new vaccine came on to the Canadian market recently which can be used to vaccinate pregnant cows and heifers against infectious bovine rhinotracheitis (IBR) or rena nose. In the past, IBR vaccines could be used only on open cows.

The new vaccine was released in the United States last fall after about a year of trials. It was first used in Alberta in November on a dairy herd near Edmonton. Dr. G. G. Klavans, microbiologist at the provincial veterinary services laboratory, reports that there have been no subsequent abortions in the herd, nor any side effects. IBR can occur in both dairy and beef cattle. The percentage of abortions is usually much higher in beef herds and can range anywhere from 15 to 60 percent.

However, five of the nine cases of IBR diagnosed in the province since last September have been in dairy herds. This is a fairly significant proportion when one considers that only a very small percentage of all the cattle fed submitted to the veterinary laboratory each year come from dairy herds.

Dr. Klavans strongly advised dairy and beef cattle producers to keep all additions to their herds completely separate from unvaccinated breeding herds while the cows are in calf. He also advises anyone who buys feeders to keep them well away from the breeding herd.

Dairymen would be wise, he says, to contact their local veterinarian and discuss the feasibility of using the new vaccine on their

Rapeseed growers advised to plant Lear seed only

—Re-issued from the District Agriculturist's Office.

O. G. Bratvold, director of the Alberta plant industry division, says that there is increasing evidence that Canadian rapeseed growers will have to make a complete changeover to low erucic acid rapeseed ("LEAR") by 1973 if they are to retain their overseas markets.

He explains that this conclusion is based on preliminary information garnered from the rapeseed mission which recently returned from a tour of the major importing countries in both Europe and the Far East.

Order trees by Feb. 25th

Farmers and acreage holders wanting to order trees for 1972 planting are advised that the deadline for applications to reach this office has been set at February 25th.

The list of varieties available at this time is limited as a great number are now out of stock; so if you're planning on getting trees from the department of agriculture this spring, please send in your applications soon.

While their report has not been released, it is reliably reported that overseas buyers, including our largest customer, Japan, will be converting to the use of low erucic acid rapeseed as soon as we are in a position to maintain a continuous supply. The domestic edible oil industry has also indicated their intention to discontinue the use of regular rapeseed oil in their products not later than the fall of 1972, when the new crop becomes available.

Mr. Bratvold advises Alberta rapeseed growers to plant only certified seed of LEAR (Span) in 1972. If they do not, they may find themselves with a crop with a high erucic acid content. There are ample supplies of certified LEAR available, and rapeseed growers should consult their local seed dealer or district agriculturist regarding the variety most suited to their area.

Producers are urged to obtain all the information they can regarding the above to assist them in their decision making.

PLEASE NOTE: LEAR stands for low erucic acid rapeseed and the varieties are, SPAN, ZEPHYR and ORO. SPAN is recommended for this central area.

Seminar planned on tax changes

The Alberta department of agriculture and the Canada department of national revenue, taxation division, have just begun a joint educational program on the new 1972 income tax legislation. Dr. G. Purnell, deputy minister of the department of agriculture, has announced. He wishes to emphasize that this does NOT apply to 1971 income tax returns.

The combined provincial-federal effort will provide a detailed explanation of changes and implications relating to agriculture, as soon as possible. Areas of interest to farmers would include basic herd, capital cost allowance, capital gains partnerships (adjusted cost base) and the accrual system of accounting.

Regarding this new legislation, pamphlets on each of these topics, and others, will be sent to all individual farmers who have filed income tax forms relating to their farm business last year.

Each pamphlet will explain and give concrete examples of how the changes in legislation will effect the filing of income tax for 1972, (due to be filed on or before April 30, 1973).

Late in January, department of agriculture staff will take part in a three day extensive seminar on the new act. Implications of the act will be carefully analyzed soon thereafter. It is hoped that answers can be provided to the questions some farmers will be asking early in the year.

Mr. D. F. Rutherford, director-taxation with the department of national revenue, stresses the importance of realizing that the pamphlets farmers will be receiving in the mail some time soon relate to income tax for 1972. Remember, it's "once again the old way," and perhaps the pamphlets might best be filed away until after April 30, to avoid confusion in filing out 1971 returns.

—Re-issued from the District Agriculturist's office.

Dairy Board takes in Milk and Cream men

Alberta's agriculture minister Honorable Hugh M. Horner has announced proposed changes in legislation to facilitate the implementation of the Alberta Milk Market Sharing Plan. To accommodate producers involved in the plan, Dr. Horner has stated that legislation will be enacted to enlarge the membership of the Milk Control Board so that it may encompass representatives of industrial milk and cream producers.

In the proposed legislation the existing Milk Control Board will become known as the Alberta Dairy Board to indicate the wider scope of its duties.

To assist the Alberta Dairy Board in the administration of the Market Sharing Plan an advisory committee of representatives of producers throughout the province will be established.

In order to vote on the market sharing plan all producers are requested to register before January 28, 1972. Those registered will be eligible to vote on the plan in March.

Registration forms are available from the district agriculturist's office at Morinville and will be in the hands of Mr. J. Moore, at Suite 309 - 100th Ave., Building, 10405 - 100 Ave., Edmonton 14, Alta., by Jan. 28th.
